

SIXTEENTH CIRCUIT JUDGE DAVID AUDLIN, left, and Key West lawyer Ed Scales helped stage an appellate moot court with honor students from Key West High School as part of the Justice Teaching program. Ten students served as judges, lawyers, and bailiff for the moot court that revolved around a Fourth Amendment search and seizure case. The audience for the presentation was made up of fellow high schoolers, parents, and Montessori School 5th graders.